Participant Expectations:

Our hope and expectation is that you attend Teen Summit with an open mind, a willingness to be engaged, and an interest in meeting new people or trying new things. The purpose of Teen Summit is to allow you a chance for new experiences in an environment of mutual respect. As a participant, you have the responsibility for creating a positive and welcoming environment. But most importantly, we expect for you to have fun and walk away feeling better prepared for your future! Please wear comfortable clothes and bring a water bottle.

TEEN SUMMIT 2018

February 13, 2018 8am-2pm

Teen Summit is a free, one-day conference for Benton County teens (grades 8-12) to network, access resources, and learn more about issues that affect their lives. Workshop topics are chosen by local teens, rooted in the idea that Teen Summit should focus on youth interests. Lunch is provided.

Keynote Speaker Russ Peak: For nearly 20 years, Russ Peak has been recognized as the leader in motivational entertainment. His award-winning programs are a high-energy mix of humor, magic, and audience participation, that have made him a favorite choice for youth. However, Russ doesn't just entertain his audiences. Throughout the laughter and fun, he weaves a powerful motivational message that will leave your audience recharged, ready, and eager to take on their challenges!
